Chapter 195

ダダダ…

It leads to the hatch closest to the exit. You'll have to escape on your own after that.

I'm telling you ahead of time that this passage is only intended for maintenance and isn't connected to the outside. The establishment isn't that careless!

Anyway, why are you saving me?

Don't worry, that's more than enough.

We'll never forget that kindness.

Because it seems like you helped Wau in the past. Furthermore, you also rescued the children of this country.

Hmmmph. So even a teacher takes that sort of thing to heart, huh?

It's a Japanese proverb. "Showing kindness is not for the sake of other people but ultimately for the sake of oneself," is how it's explained, I believe.

"Kindness is not just for the sake of one," huh? I catch the drift.

Heheh-

What?

Earlier, when the team was trying to escape from the White Unit...

And why did you come down here?

Why does Wiseman treat only me harshly...

I just arrived half a day ago...

I was forced to slip away on my own from the enemy forces. And I ultimately ended up here.

In that case... It's only a matter of time before Hijikata's appearance. hm..?

They've also been informed of Zasid's arrival.

...And that's how our entire force became aware of the situation here.

SFX: Hatch Opening

ガチャ

Sorry about that.

Hurry and go.

ガ"

...
Jesus!?

Tok-

ZASID IS MOVING AT A SPEED OF ABOUT 30 KM/H JUST NOW.

Note: About 18.64 mph.

...Sensei... Please...

ACCORDING TO HISTORICAL RECORDS. THIS SPEED IS POSSIBLE.

HOWEVER. SUCH SPEED HAS ONLY EVER BEEN RECORDED ON THE TRACK. DURING COMPETITIONS THEY ARE NOT RECORDS RECORDED IN A WILDERNESS LIKE THIS.

Even if it's assumed that Zasid's opponent is a world-class hitman, if that person confronts him at such a distance, Zasid, in a state of tension, confronted Jesus.

That's normally unbelievable. It was an extremely rare sight.

Intriguing
...

he's still no match for Zasid.

But Zasid can't move. And the secret lies in the structure of the AK-47 pointed at him.

The reason for its dominance is its level of "ingenuity" and its magnificently "crude" method of construction.

The renowned AK-47 has an ingenious design and has long since been used throughout the world.

In addition, it could be said that the main reasons for its usage on the battlefield are its simplicity and cheap cost.

Firearms that are assembled compactly and precisely end up malfunctioning.

Regardless of whether it's covered with dust or mud or is stuck in any other unfavourable condition, it can still fire bullets reliably.

But–
How's your luck in gambling?

...Yeah...
Zasid Turus, you possess authority, strength, wealth, brains, and practically everything else the average person could ever wish for.

...I see..
You've realized you're no match for me in a direct fight, so you want to have a match that's unpredictable and relies solely on chance, right?

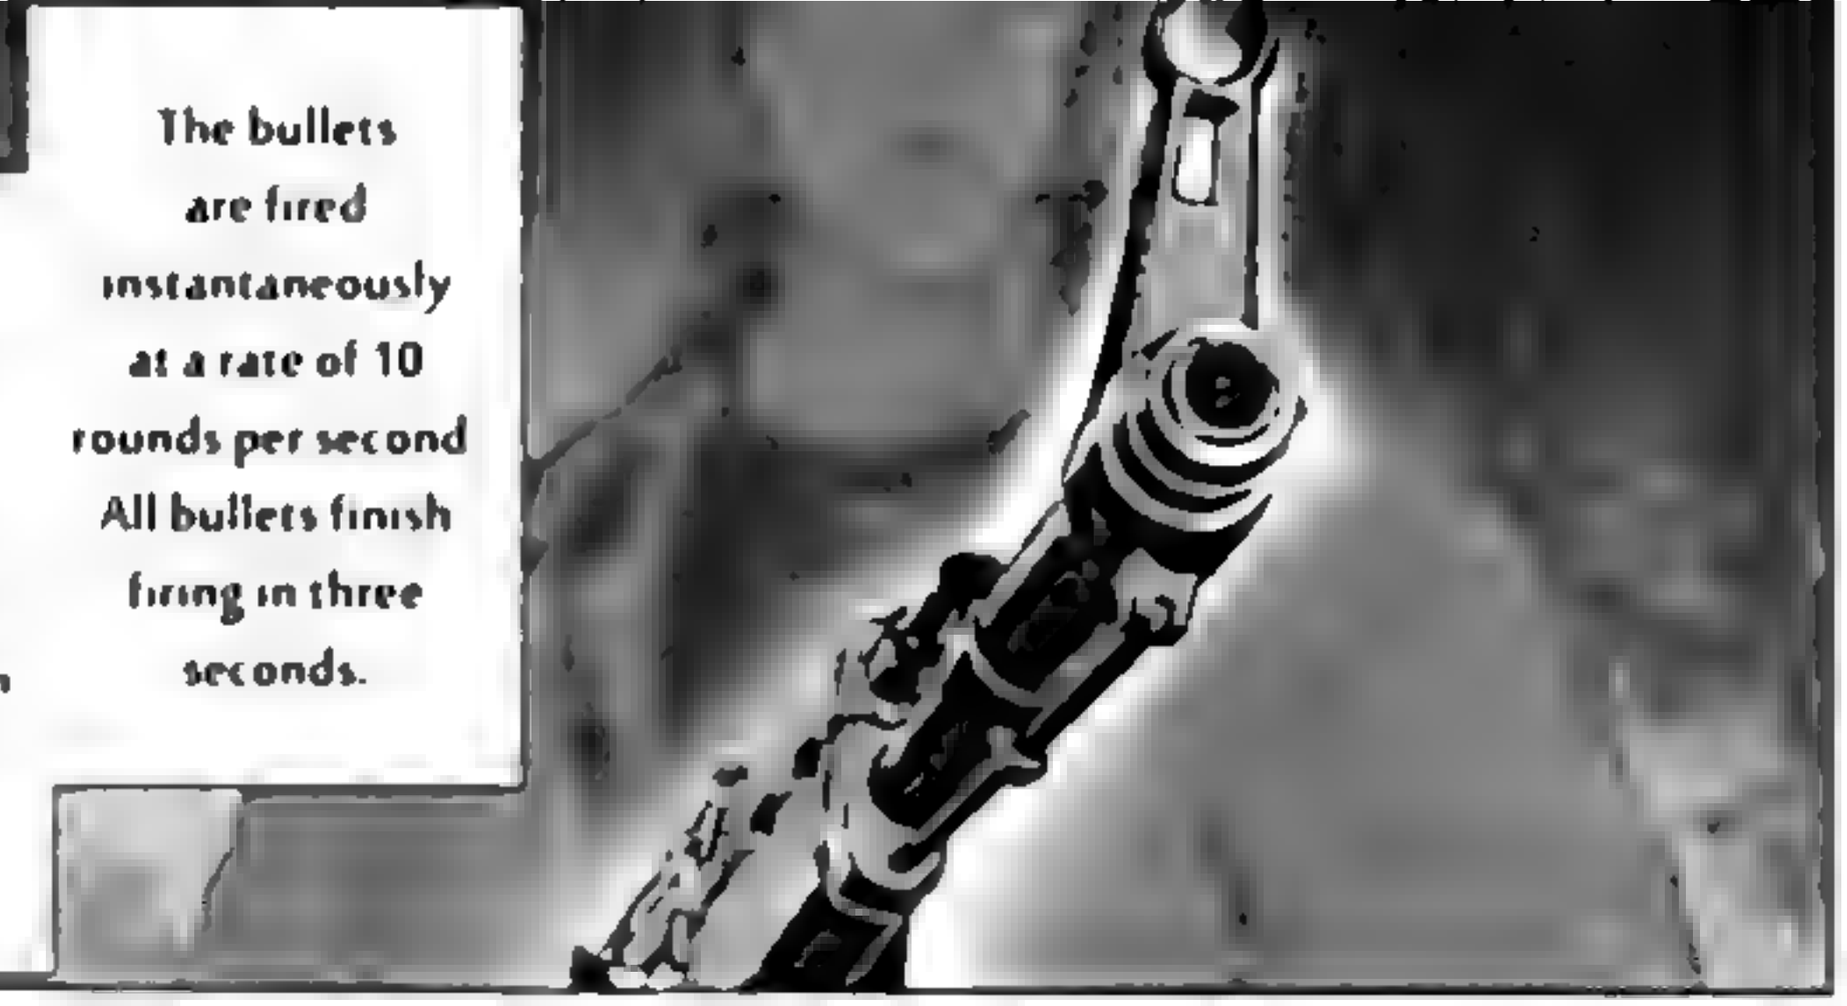
Zasid has already "seen" Jesus squeezing the crudely-built trigger as tightly as possible.

The gun's selective-fire mode has already been switched to fully automatic.
If the trigger moves even the slightest millimeter, bullets will be relentlessly fired towards Zasid.

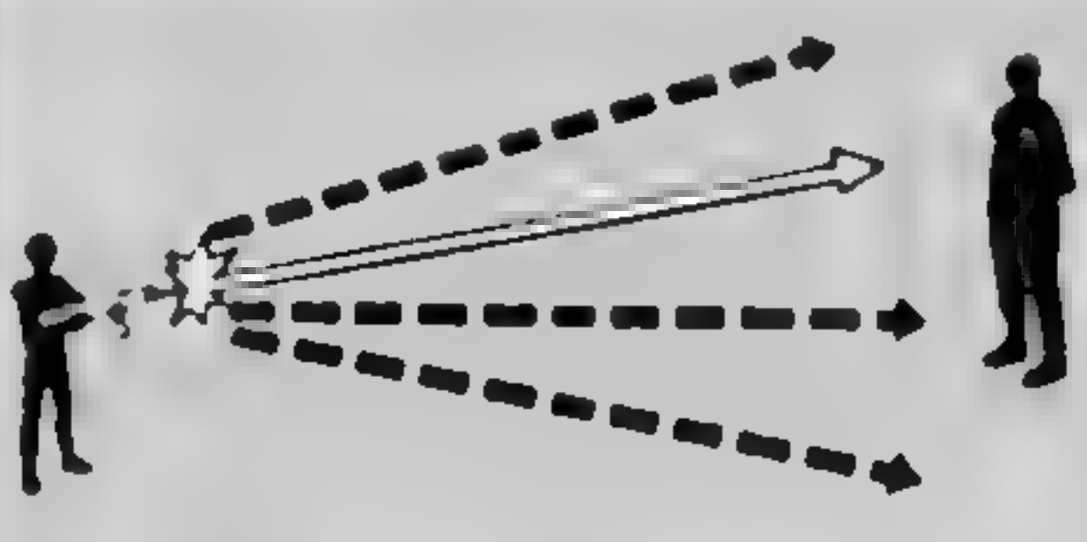
The worst part about this guy is, it doesn't matter what his mouth says or who his enemy might be, he doesn't underestimate them on the inside. He never show any openings.

The bullets are fired instantaneously at a rate of 10 rounds per second All bullets finish firing in three seconds.

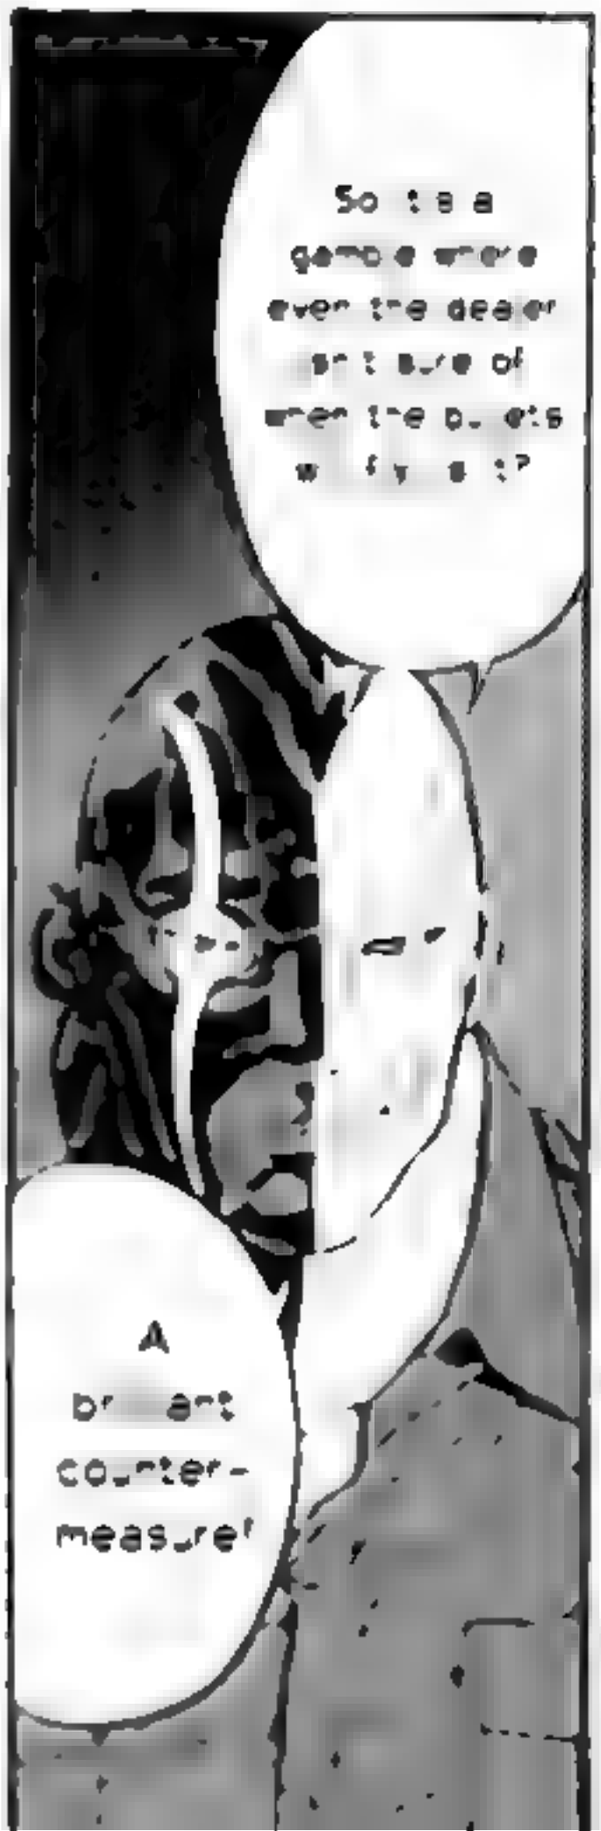
However the problem lies in its crude build where the trigger's travel is inconsistent The bullet trajectory of an AK-47 that's been used for an extended period of time becomes erratic



That's because he can't act based on sensing killing intent when his opponent isn't even fully aware of it.



And with the shooter's spontaneous timing when firing bullets, avoiding them is an extremely daunting task for Zasid.



If Jesus can anticipate a person's intentions to such a degree, even Zasid has no choice but to acknowledge his brilliance

Furthermore, Jesus appeared before Zasid at such a distance because he didn't intend to give Zasid space to dodge

With bullets flying at 2,620 km/h, even Zasid cannot see all of them Life or death is dictated solely by chance

If I'm not surrounded by at least two other people, you can't stop me from moving.

However, do you believe that you have an advantage over me with just one little rifle?

That's the single equality God bestowed upon humans.

...Who knows... It's just... There isn't a human being in this world that doesn't die.

Hm.

I should test that out myself.

...And that's why I'm sure I can kill you.

However, that gun will likely fire if it touches even a twig...

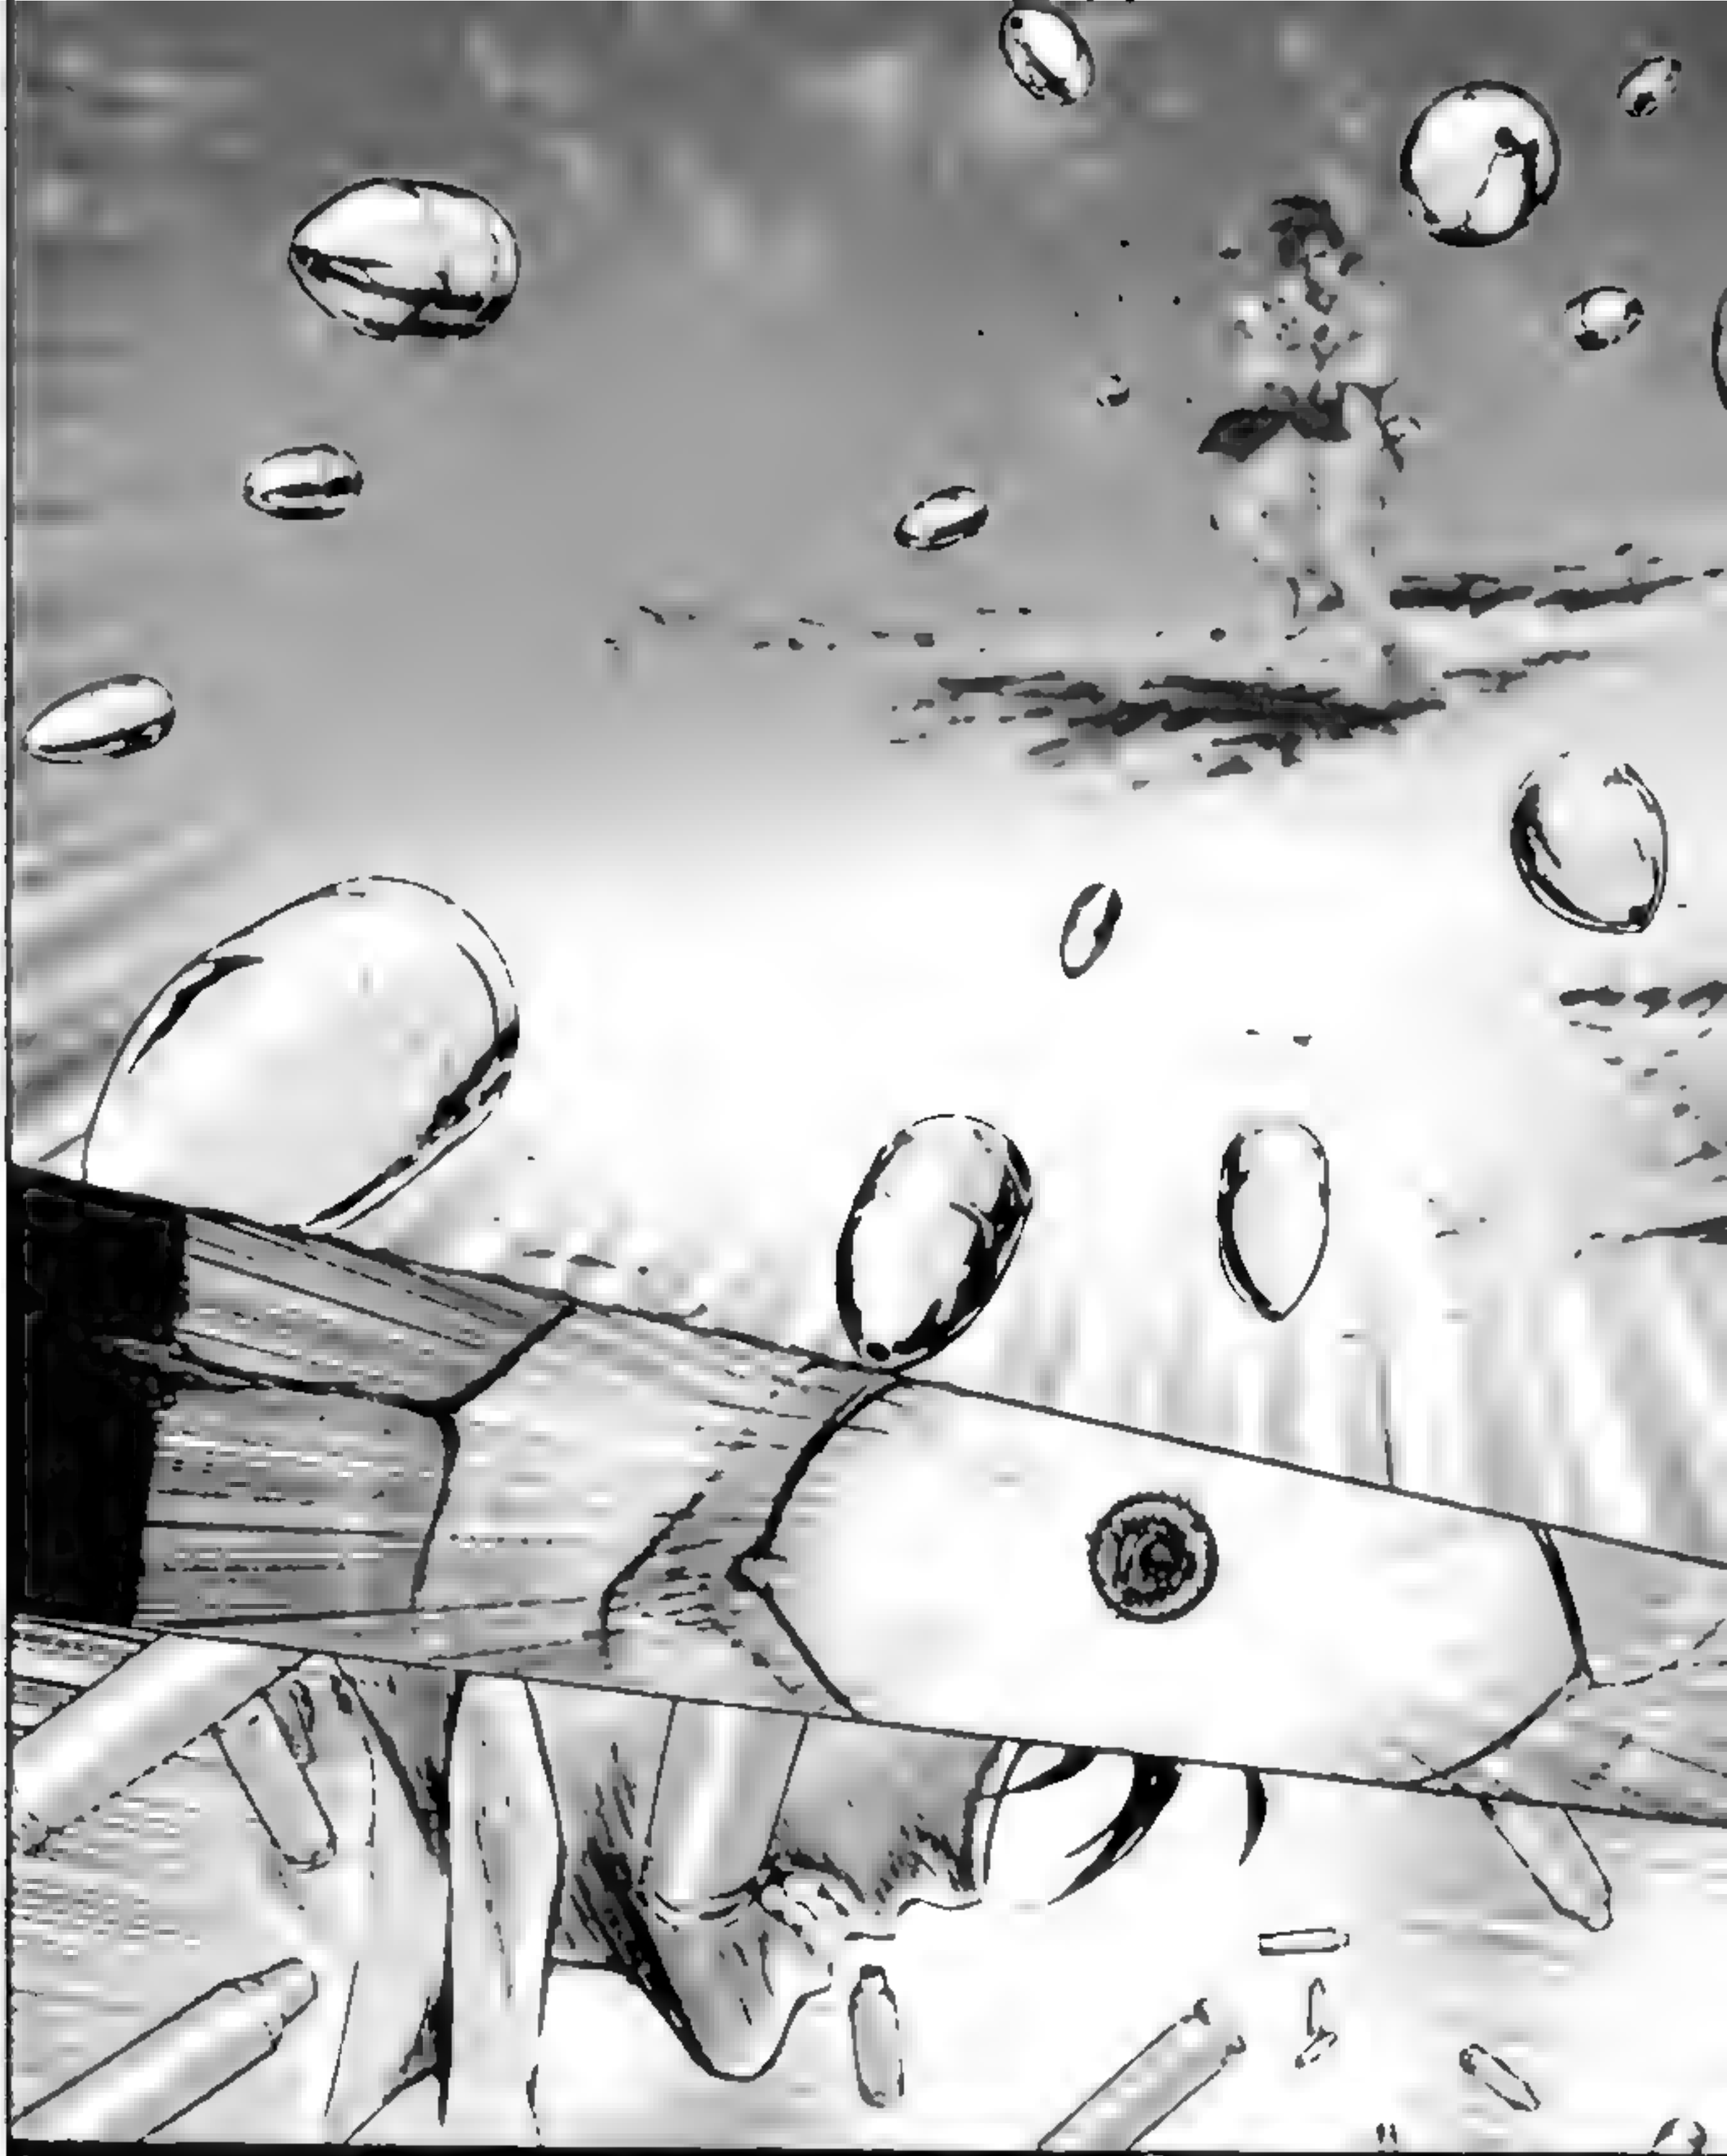
I suppose I should move to a better position...

This dude knows it too. This standstill can't go on for much longer.

But-

...This will soon... reach its climax.

...I'm sure Ash has reached a safe area by now...



Hm

The other way!?

Not bad!

What a troubling enemy!

Even though I stepped in a double team, I couldn't even buy half a second!

—You terrible... You double tapper!

Correct!

Even if a ricochet breaks my skin,

it lacks the momentum to penetrate my abdominal muscles.

...What a difficult battle...

Although, this is the first time in 20 years that somebody has managed to shed my blood

Spectacular. Jesus the Hitman. I won't forget your fucking name.

Say that after it's all over!

You ensure time and time again, selling her an opportunity to strike. And in the end, you eliminate your target. Truly the actions of a [illegible] human. Absolutely [illegible]

...So you're still able to argue back. Your cunning is apparent through your vitality and tenacity.

What should I do?

...That said... The way I see it, I've practically run out of options...

I should talk about why I haven't been in the best mood lately.

Most of you don't know yet, but I'm forced to stay home everyday in order to take care of my severely ill mother. She's been ill for over 15 years, which is basically most of my life.

Recently, her medical expenses have been piling up and our household income (primarily rental income) isn't enough (after food and utility costs) to cover them.

I hate talking about this, but as much as I have an undying passion for translating, I can't exactly thrive on thin air...

That's why, if you can help a poor soul, I'd be sincerely thankful if you could donate to support my livelihood. Any amount helps. I have no need for the money myself, so all of the proceeds will go straight towards my mother's medical expenses.

Truly a prudent fellow.

In addition, luring me here and challenging me to a final match...

Looks like he'd been inspecting the area for many days...

Jesus- Letting you live would be quite trouble-some.

Now I'm going to slay you for sure...

That matchup was too sudden...

..Impressive..

You could confront Zaid face-to-face and hold your own against him...

Next time, I won't back off from this gamble!

Being in that tight spot, I just couldn't think of any other means...

Just like that bastard claims, he's hard to kill even for someone who is one of the world's first-class!

Moreover, he's damn lucky that I couldn't kill him in that condition...

"ブオオオ

……

...He's strong... More so than I imagined-

So, what are your thoughts on the target?

...Nah... He's human.
Without a doubt... I think. It's undeniable that his physical ability is top-notch.

...I share the same opinion. I know your capabilities are extraordinary but...
He's at the level where you might as well call him Black Superman.

You still haven't changed your mind, have you? For starters, he's not the kind of enemy you you fight head-to-head.
His growth alone shows he's different from us, mere mortals.

It's exactly because we know his whereabouts that it is time to attack.

That being said, I have no certain means of defeating him.

I must admit, I'm impressed by the fact that it's possible for a human being to reach such a high level.

Perhaps you should do that after I get done in.

Yeah. It's exactly because we know his whereabouts that I believe you should settle it after we've perfected our wiles...

...Just what will happen... after this...

...Pity...

Ugh ...

was the monster that Haruka deemed extremely dangerous ...

That ...

...That person is Zasid Turus...

This time, you all got to taste that dread of his, upon which I elaborated earlier.

Unfortunately, that confirms that it's not possible to defeat him, as long as we keep using non-lethal weapons, and sticking with our pacifistic principles.

You overdid it, Tooyama.

Sensei...

Was there really a point in a plan that put even your friends in danger?

And yeah, he's the rumoured monster.

This is an opportunity to get at the TPC, so I'll kill him instead! You guys go back with Hijikata since he can't kill that fucker using a katana! It's the least compatible against him!

There's no way to defeat that guy other than with live ammo.

And even then it would be tough.

One exists!?

Eh..?

If there really is a way to kill him for certain...

.....

For you, youngsters, there is a sure way to kill him in 10, maybe 20 years... It's "time!"

He won't stay young forever!

It's so inevitable that we were just lucky this time!

Fore-sight!?

I was even able to use foresight to predict that Sensei would save us, so...

Yeah,

……

Then the reason why you're being targeted– and all the heat from those pursuers who don't even know what she's worth, when you connect the dots, it all starts making sense...

...I see... No wonder that never occurred to me, but... Indeed, judging by Hujkata's attitude, the bounty offered,

...Nishiyama, the ExSolid managing director being apprehended, and Kakujmura, the former Kakuhou-kai kingpin, are both not an issue to us.

So far, one group of people related to the Elements Network, our members here, Tate-san, Anna-sa-

...So, who knows about it?

Based on our speculation, besides them there shouldn't be anyone else seriously believing in it, even though it's been leaked to them.

But Komura, who's a young lead subordinate in the same syndicate, Wiseman, and Zasid Turus's son, Edge-

Not even me... If not for this situation, I'd believe it's a joke or coincidence, or maybe a movie or something!

Hana! Of course no one in their sane mind would take such an absurdly tall tale for granted!

So they don't think she's the real deal, huh..?

Yes.

We're acting completely independent of each other.

...So, that damn Hijikata wanted to capture Edge Turus, and then settle the dispute with Zasid-

Even if he took advantage of the Network's power. Hijikata's quite the guy!

...I'm sure... he has a good grasp of this situation...

ガヤ

ガヤ

ガヤ

Not that! Why are you taking it upon yourself to make preparations for a sortie!?

What are you doing!?

You'd know if you actually looked, but it's a sortie!

So this time we'll be the ones to attack!

You're so damn annoying .. I've received intel about a group of enemy forces heading this way!

That intel–

Ugh–

But aren't you the Minister of Defence here!?

Since I think it's the truck you missed

If you doubt me, maybe you should go check it for yourself!

You're sure of it, right?

...Then I shall go

After all, that's the reason I come here!

MY SAMPLES ARE OF MY MASTER'S OWN VOICE.

Yeah, I'm pretty sure Daiba mentioned that name before

Although talking in that same voice of his irritates me. It reminds me of him.

So that's why you were ridiculed by Zasid when he said that "it's sinful being dumb!?"

Shuddap...!

"Who cares!?"

"I'm the best in the world!"

But...

"Miracles" don't come to smart people.

Too bad I don't hate idiots though.

I see. "It's sinful being dumb," huh?

There is some truth to what you say.

Those who aren't desperate only end up dying. Particularly, monsters like him.

I've had students like him in the past, you know.

...You're skilled at dealing with idiots, hm?

...Utter defeat...

I was certain that an opening would have appeared for me to take advantage of.

I had confidence in my skills, and my enemy was human.

I even reacted late to Tooyama's order to withdraw, which was already far from her usual practice.

...But that was why I was taken advantage of instead.

Haruka also wanted us to know first-hand, before it was too late. Our enemy's dreadfulness.

It wasn't only for the sake of passing on intel to Mamoru...

.....

Well... then.

We shall enter battle about an hour from now.

Attack using your own judgement at each of the planned locations. There will not be any specific orders coming from me outside of the plan. That will be all.

However, keep in mind that our enemy is the White Unit.

OUR ONLY ADVANTAGES ARE OUR POSITIONS AND THE TIMING OF OUR AMBUSHES.

EVERY ONE OF THEIR CAPABILITIES ARE ON PAR WITH YOURS.

I've been competing with you guys over the past two months, but I've witnessed exceptional growth.

Your levels have changed since you attempted to kill me in Japan.

There's a roughly 10-to-1 difference in power with these enemies who have focused on high-speed vehicles, but...

Our foe doesn't use heavy vehicles!

Don't hold back!

You should be predicting their evasive manoeuvres and flinging those boomerangs.

They're pretty low-profile!

If you swing a blade, or in particular a katana, while knowing your opponent's line of sight it becomes a weapon that's extremely hard to see it becomes even harder to distinguish, and its length is difficult to grasp as well.

If they look at it immediately after, even if it seems like you're showing off by wielding it in that way, it becomes difficult for the enemy to keep it in sight

Hence, a blade aimed straight at the enemy causes them to turn towards you

If we flank them, they'll break apart easily.

Do you believe I'm commanding the White Unit as some figurehead!?

Being Zasid Turus's son is not just for show!

Up until now, I've been persistently putting thought into this! My actions were so foolish!

W-W-W... With an enemy who has such a bullshit expectation, there's no way I'd be able to predict the goals behind your operation's movements!

Haha-haha-hahah!!

Since we couldn't allow you to figure out our true motives.

Now that I've caught your attention...

I should talk about why I haven't been in the best mood lately.

Most of you don't know yet, but I'm forced to stay home everyday in order to take care of my severely ill mother. She's been ill for over 15 years, which is basically most of my life.

Recently, her medical expenses have been piling up and our household income (primarily rental income) isn't enough (after food and utility costs) to cover them.

I hate talking about this, but as much as I have an undying passion for translating, I can't exactly thrive on thin air...

That's why, if you can help a poor soul, I'd be sincerely thankful if you could donate to support my livelihood. Any amount helps. I have no need for the money myself, so all of the proceeds will go straight towards my mother's medical expenses.

You claim you can move quicker than I can!?

It's unfathomable that someone superior to me, M.sa't, exists!
I am Zasid Turus's son!

Shall we see then?

What nonsense-

If you can catch up-

!?

第199話

That was a coincidence. I was just in sync with his movements by chance-

...What's wrong?

What the fuck...

Distractions are useless against me.

.....

If I were the average enemy, you could overpower me with your physical ability. However, even if it's somewhat clever, your reliance on it makes you negligent towards visualization in battle and you can't predict your enemy's true power!

Asshole, is that how you approach combat? And claiming to be the son of that "God of War"-

You're slow!

Boast after you've confirmed that it's an enemy who would succumb from just your sheer physical ability!

He never underestimates an enemy based on just a difference in physical strength, like you do. He's extremely cautious, even towards infants.

I'm sure that Zasid Turus not only has tremendous physical ability, but every single quality of his, his perceptions, thoughts, readiness, and so on, are all at the highest levels humanly possible.

He's going to face Zasid head-on, and he's getting fired up for that!

...Haruka... The plan just backfired...

.....

I ABSOLUTELY WILL NOT TOLERATE YOU RIDICULING THE TURUS BLOODLINE!

I won't stand for this.

I will finish you off swiftly.

I'm sorry, but someone of your incompetence won't even whet my appetite.

What are you going on about, just being a stupid son of theirs?

Shit..!!

...How can he keep up with me!?

He can move at my speed!?

T-There's no way he could keep up!

...You make me laugh if that degree is the same level as Zasid's.

...You make too many pointless manoeuvres.

With such uncanny movements, how could he surpass my speed!?

...I... I don't get it! ...How could I lose!?

17

"R"

"R"

"R"

Mamoru!?

Hm ...!?

Gah..!!

ゴロン ゴロン

...That counter-attack just now wasn't bad, but since your punches missed its mark, they lost effective-ness.

I'm the same type of person that Zasid is.

I'm never careless.

...You're not gonna kill him?

I think this guy's necessary. According to Mr. Chief of Operations... that is.

...We're basically done...

I'm done too.

...I watched on the screen, but...

No way! Honestly, if he had fled at full speed, I wouldn't have been able to catch up with him on foot.

...So not even Zelm knows why?

How did you move faster than Misalt?

Asian sorcery?

No, I don't!

That's why I'm sucking it up, as I must inquire.

What a greedy grandpa!

Although, if you don't know why,

then we'll probably be able to finish this very soon!

Yeah, so how did you do it?

If I constrain him to a 10 metre radius,

I can move at least at his speed.

A fixed range... Hmm, I wonder.

Nitori. Mamoru probably means that if both Zelm and Misalt couldn't figure out the trick, Zasid probably can't either. Thus, Mamoru might have the upper hand.

If you relentlessly cut down on pointless advances and act only after anticipating your enemy's move, then you can make up for the small difference in speeds.

Simply put, "gait" and "prediction."

Even monsters cannot go beyond the laws of physics. No matter what, a limit exists.

Think about it carefully. The movements of human beings result from the changes in their center of gravity.

Hence, you can set your mind to it and continually practice to improve in order for your body to never become dull. That's all there is to it.

So... Suriashi then...

...Hmmmph.

Note- Suriashi is a sliding manoeuvre used in martial arts such as kendo or judo

A tradition that has been refined over a long time, simply put, cannot be bested, right?

That's easy to put in words, but the "martial arts" are truly profound, aren't they?

It's achieved by using steps that limit the legs' vertical motions as much as possible, you say?

That's why it's effective.

Keep in mind, if you don't get within their reach, your enemy can't take you down.

If you eliminate all ineffectiveness, it will certainly end up that way.

TL Note: Author mistakenly wrote "out of reach" instead of "within reach."

.....

I'm just saying that kind of action is possible if it's under that specific condition.

Even against that monstrous enemy...

Certainly... If it's you, there might be a chance of winning.

That is... even if it means dying.

Even if you're not concerned, I will definitely kill Zasid.

No. No matter what situations I visualize or what means I take,

Nope.

And no.

Yes.

Then if you were to fight him directly, you would win, right?

I have the confidence to win! However, he's not a man you can measure simply based on strengths or weaknesses.

Why must you be so engrossed with a little girl who is a complete stranger?

If I am able to defeat that monster who is the so-called "pinnacle of mankind," then that will be the moment I've perfected the blade I'm aiming for.

Regarding that, Zasid's the reason behind Haruka's capturing.

We'll see, won't we?

The same goes if you're unarmed.

I'm not unarmed.

If you want to kill me, you would need to alter a space of at least 10 metres into a space of pure bloodshed, in the blink of an eye.

There would be no other way besides using explosives or having up to four or five people use rifles

Hence, this was the only possible way.

Unfortunately, for a fucker like you who pays extreme care, you would've already suppressed all of the camping spots in the places where that may have been possible.

First. I'll rely on a special move that I'm not even sure exists.
W-What "two" methods ?

TL Note: "Kenjutsu Shinansho" literally means "Kenjutsu Instruction Manual."

Among the secrets of the Kenjutsu Shinansho lies a technique that not even I fully understand.

Mainly, going up against that which is not a technique.

Simply put, it's the state of determination one arrives at when they believe, "I'll surely defeat my foe if I slash him like this" or "I'll be invincible if I unleash this" and so forth

However, that's thought of as practically nothing more than a bluff where someone wants to arrogantly show off their style.

...And that is..?

Then, I'll use one other secret I can realize which has the highest probability of success without having to rely on something so consistently inadequate

It's an ideal state where kenjutsu can reach its highest potential.

Of course, for someone like me who hasn't really mastered half of what's in there yet. I may even use it in battle without realizing it!

Note: Aiuchi is a situation where both fighters attack each other at the same time.

That's—

Aiuchi.

I'll play "dead" and give up my desire to live. Then, I'll lure Zasid's attack as much as possible and bring him into an attack range where he can't escape my sword. That's the only way.

That's right. I'm aiming for aiuchi.

as long as his attack puts him in a range close enough to reach me.

It's a plain and simple "response" in which my attack is sure to hit

"In the case of having to choose between life and death, you should choose death. There is no other reasoning. Move on with determination."

"'The way of the warrior is realised in the presence of death' as detailed in Hagakure...? And, in its entirety

...A theory where a living being can't beat a deceased being, hm..?

For More Details About Hagakure: https://goo.gl/bzEYRh

When you're forced to choose between "life" or "death," you'll be fine if you choose to die without hesitation.

What does that mean?

You expect me to know something that sounds like a Buddhist prayer?

It's proof of a "warrior" who lived while facing "death".

...Urg...

That sounds cheap!

.....

You're no doubt a man. One who is in lo~ve.

It doesn't matter whether or not you're a warrior.

I've said it before and I'll say it again.

I'm neither a samurai nor a warrior.

Protip: Never anger a blind man who goes through 200+ chapters of pain for the sake of one loli.

Since the beginning. I've already been battling as a human who has died.

Even if I die. as long as Zasid is killed as well. I will have won. He isn't a foe I hope to beat unharmed.

Wow!

That's twice as much as I expected!

...Yeah... It's always been around 20% or so...

H-Hey Despite what you say isn't there at least a chance of surviving?

チッ

Such wonderful tension... It's as good as Jesus's from the other day!

You will entertain me!

No, that was probably my de facto master, a man I happen to know of.

...The other day, I fought against a woman who used a blunt weapon which could transform, but was that spectacular chain attack from your expertise?

I most certainly wish to try meeting with him.

Unfortunately, meeting with that geezer would mean going to Hell!

Note: "Go no Sen" can be interpreted as "Attacking First After Being Attacked", while "Go no Go" (which doesn't actually exist in Kendo) can be interpreted as "Attacking After Being Attacked".

This guy's main form of attack is "Go no Sen", which thoroughly leverages his wonderful reflexes!

Likewise, my goal is the generally impossible "Go no Go", with the resolve for an aiuchi.

It's when he attacks first after seeing through my attack.

I'll take a stab

If I swing it down in one go,

Adorned with the chills of a brandished sword running down his back.

but at the same time, end the fucker's life!!

What's the scheming!?

The initial idea that is rushing on to invade.

... Come ...

Mamoru-
san..!!

!?

Nn..!?

My reaction's late-

ｱｱｱ"

Idiot..!

Guh..!!

Nonetheless, it seems lacking your concentration in the midst of battle was a soaring miscalculation!

In terms of time, you had less than a tenth of a second.

I won't allow anyone to give me orders!

...What is your motive!?

Hm..!?

スッ

Stop!!

I'm using a zero second fuse inside this, designed for traps!

No matter how fast your reaction is, I won't let you pin me down before this explodes!

...But I'll die!

If you're looking to use me, I'll be worthless dead, wouldn't I?

..Then what is your intention? Are you looking to release it, so the three of us die all at once?

If I run the other way, that sort of explosive won't kill me

!!

I'll hand myself over to you.

In exchange, please promise me you'll let Mamoru-san go.

I'm forced to stay home everyday to care for my mother who has been sick for over 15 years

.....

...Yes...

Are you aware of the consequences that will come to you by saying such a thing?

That's probably sufficient for you.

If you could assuredly promise me, I will put the pin back in and hand the grenade over.

How will you guarantee that you will fulfill your promise?

Heheheh..! I see. So a psychic can't deceive, huh?

Very well. If you obediently accompany me, I'll let that man go.

However, I have no reason to fulfill any promises.

No matter how ruthless you are, you will fulfill it, as long as you've made the promise.

...Could you give me a moment? I wish to pay farewell-

...Sigh... If you keep me waiting too long, I'll change my mind...

Thank you!

Mamoru-san!?

Damn..!
I'll never resort to this method again...

do...
do this...
Ugh...

If you... didn't get in the way...
I would've absolutely... defeated
him...

...Why did you haphazardly—

I knew you would surely die!

I deliberately acted so it would turn out like this!

but to me,
it was only
"defeat!"

You thought you'd achieve
"victory" with an aiuchi where you'd die yet defeat Zasid,

What did... you say!?

Doing such... an arbitrary thing...

When I said farewell in the past, I asserted that you'd "definitely win," didn't I?

Don't you feel bad!?

Everyone you've been together with... up until now...

!?

I don't want to live on without Mamoru-san!!

...I love you...

So... So you must live on... Please come and get me while I'm still okay.

...I'll be waiting all the while...

Come with me.

Okay

スッ

Y-You fool!

Wait!

ガッ

...You should be allowed to die your own way..!

ｻﾞﾝ

What have I been doing up until now!?

ｶﾞﾌｯ is unable to protect anything"

The sword I've risked my life to polish to such a degree

Has it achieved no meaning?

I can't save her, again..?

Fuck..!
Fuck..!!
Fuck..!!
Fucking
hell..!!

I wanted to protect Haruka,
for my own sake also!

So...
For
that...

You
alright?

ガ"

Mother-
fucker...
How dare
you!

!?

This is your second time!

You're wrong!

...Why was Haruka brought here... For what reason... I put her in your care...

Don't be pissed! It's seems like I'm the one who stayed silent and watched, but Zasid would've definitely killed you, so Tooyama stopped you!

Damn..!

In that case, I have no choice but to get her back myself..!!

Tooyama graduated from me.

I'm a teacher. I can't stop a student from choosing their own path.

.....

ガ" ッ"

Next time, I'll definitely defeat Zasid to show you.

For being done in by that freak and not losing any of your fighting spirit.

You really are the Devil Swordsman...

...I'll surely...

save... Haruka...

When I was a middle-schooler,
I rode a skateboard.

There wasn't any trauma, but it hurt so bad I couldn't walk.

Since it was late and I couldn't go to the hospital, I returned home like that. I was filled with anxiety so I couldn't fall asleep either...

My... My leg...

hurts...

And sure enough, I got injured.

UGAHH... MY LEG...

That was a dangerous way of falling..

Hey! Are you okay!?

For the first time in about 10 years, I went with my friend to a small home town plaza to skateboard.

Yaaahoo!!

D★S

Nose Slide

Although I'm still in great shape, I forcefully tried a technique with a low success rate...

Where does it hurt?

Doctor... I wanna ride again!

Surgery

DAS-san~ Welcome~

...Actually, it probably doesn't hurt anymore...

I'm not really sure where it hurts.

Was it God?

A miracle happened!

I'd say it's below the calf...

Ahh, okay~

Yeah, so it-

モン モン

Doctor! Take care of yourself~

Doctor! I'm all oookay~

There's probably nothing wrong! (It's just a temporary condition.)

Eh... Okay...

In that case, even if you took an x-ray, no results would show. In the rare case you may have hurt a muscle, it would hurt touching it, but... If it doesn't look like that...

Readers, be sure to take good care of yourself as well!
